Thunder Tickets At Little Theater

Tickets for "Campus Thunder, '55" went on sale to the general public Monday at the University's Little Theater box office. The eighth annual edition of the collegiate musical will take place at the Klein Memorial Auditorium on Nov. 19, 20 and 22.

The show will also play at the Bushnell Memorial Auditorium in Hartford on Nov. 23. The Hartford appearance marks the first time that the production will go on tour.

Reservations may be made during the day and evening by telephoning FO 6-3615.

Ticket prices for the Friday and Monday performances (Nov. 19 and 22) are as follows: Mezzanine and Front Orchestra, $2.50; Rear Orchestra, $2.00; Balcony, $1.25.

For the Saturday evening performance (Nov. 20), the price range is: Mezzanine and Front Orchestra, $3.60; Rear Orchestra, $2.25; Balcony, $2.25.

Student organizations have been encouraged to buy blocks of tickets for the opening night performance, in order that they might have gala celebrations.

The committee in charge of selling tickets has said that group organizations within the community can also arrange to buy blocks of tickets for each performance.

Select MC's For School's Radio Shows

Larry Levow and Marlene Gleicher have been selected to take over the University's radio show on station WICC and Gary E. Singer has been named for the second straight year to MC "Along Park Place", on radio station WNAB.

Varsity Time, will be a 15-minute show running from 4:45 to 5 P. M. every Saturday afternoon and will feature the three top tunes as taken from the Alumni Hall juke box, campus news and interviews with well known campus personalities.

Levow and Gleicher will replace Dianne MacDougall and Sand Mehorter on WICC as host and hostess. The latter two were graduated in June.

Singer in coming back for the second year, will be heard from 9 to 9:25 P. M. on Thursday nights and will feature campus news and interviews along with dedications on songs. No hostess has been named as yet, but the announcement is expected shortly, on his partner.

Both shows have been donated to the school as a public service by the radio stations.

Referendum Vote Begins Monday Student Council Asks For $2 Fee Raise

by Bob Mendes

For three years, the student has been asked to vote in favor of an increase in the Student Activity Fee. For three years, it has been defeated. Monday, Nov. 15 through Thursday, Nov. 18 a fourth referendum will be held asking the student body to increase the student activity fee from six to eight dollars.

Registration Pics Set For Approval

Pictures, taken at registration, are ready for inspection at the Public Relations office of the University for inspection by students. The office is located on the second floor of Cortright Hall.

The pictures are to be used in the school yearbook and Victor E. Muniec, Director of Public Relations and advisor to the yearbook, warns that, "If a student does not identify his picture we cannot be totally responsible if there is a mistake in the Wistarian. Last year", he continued, "we had many complaints from students whose pictures were identified wrongly in the book and we hope that it will not happen again this year".

Senior students will have their photos taken free of charge in Bishop Hall Lounge the week of Nov. 15, but the seniors must keep their appointments in order to have their picture in the yearbook.

William Daly or Joan Francis, both members of the Wistarian staff, are handling the appointments for seniors.

New Classes In Phys. Ed. Begin Monday

Dr. David A. Field, Director of Physical Education, announced that there will be seven new physical education classes beginning the week of Nov. 15.

All students planning to take these classes should take special notice of this bulletin.

The courses include: PE 92M and PE 92W, Bowling - Tuesday - periods 5 and 6 - Howland Alleys; PE 91M and PE 91W - Wednesday - Roller skating - periods 1 and 2 - Park City Skate Land; PE 95W - Social dancing - periods 1 and 2 - Music Hall; PE 16W - Social dancing - Friday - periods 3 and 4 - Music Hall; and PE 80W - Basketball - Wednesday - periods 1 and 2 - YMCA.

Dr. Field also commented that any student desiring to take the comprehensive exams in Health Education 101 and 102 should get their examination envelopes at Howland Hall. The examination will take place in January.

If such an increase is granted the Student Council will have one fourth again as much money as it has now to conduct student affairs. Under the present $12 annual activity fee, if taken full advantage of results in a $38.50 value broken down as follows:

Yearbook	$6.00
SCRIBE	$2.80
(28 issues - 10c. each)
Football Games	$5.00
(5 games - $1.00 each)
Basketball Games	$12.00
(12 games - $1.00 each)
Christmas Ball	$2.00
(with top name band)
Sweetheart Dance	$2.00
(with top name band)
Wistaria Ball	$3.00
(with top name band)
Campus Thunder	$2.00
Spring Play	$2.00
Wistaria Pageant	$1.50

In addition to these events, the council supplies funds for such activities as Freshman Week Committee and Student Spirit.

If the students vote for this two dollar increase, 35 other organizations would be added to the above list as well as additional grants to the above.

Barrett Urges Vote

Richard R. Barrett, Student Council President urges the students to, "Learn the facts, consider the issue and vote. The future of all your student activities depends on your decision. It's up to you and two-thirds of you must say 'YES'. We have, perhaps, been slow in realizing the importance of this raise (three years). Let's now take positive action towards solving this problem." Barrett went on to quote Abe Lincoln, "I may be a slow walker, but something I never do is walk backwards."

Convos Sunday, Tuesday

The next two convocations at the University will be held Sunday, Nov. 14 and Tuesday, Nov. 16.

On Nov. 14, in the Recital Hall, the Music Department will sponsor a Student Recital at 4 P. M. "Student's State in Academic Freedom" will be Dr. Hans Apel's topic at 11 A. M. Tuesday.

OK, OK, I'll vote for the activities raise.

LETTER FROM A GHOST

To the Editor of the UB newspaper:

By the time your next issue is published, the students of UB will be wondering who I am and what am I doing on this campus. I arrived at UB last Friday night and I intend to stay for awhile; at least until I can do something about several of the problems facing UB students. There are several things wrong here that I would like to correct in my own subtle way. First of all, you need more and better publicity for all your school functions, whether they be all-school or fraternity affairs. Secondly, you need better relations between your students and administration. Thirdly, the students need a uniting cause that will bring them together as a solid group. The campus is big and spread over a large area; this is one of the major problems confronting unification yet the situation can be licked. I could go on for hours with the problems here. I just hope that I can solve some of them before I leave UB.

Your paper is a powerful instrument through which you can reach the student body. Therefore, I'm going to ask for your help with my little project. The student body needs to know the facts and all of the facts if any type of unity is to evolve. Ignorance of exactly what is going on will split this campus from one end to the other. I intend to supply the student body with some of these facts through letters such as this so that the UB campus will become a better place for all concerned.

THE CAMPUS GHOST

WHAT'S NEXT

We hate to be hyper-critical, but just feel the urge to ask. . . "What is this school coming to?" Are we growing so rapidly that we must discard every school function and do nothing but expand? The student body feels these growing pains.

On a recent trip to the bookstore, we noticed on one of the counters a stack of yellow-covered mimeographed pamphlets, entitled, "University of Bridgeport Student Directory." PRICE $.25! For the benefit of the Freshman Class. . . these directories were issued last year to the entire student body — FREE OF CHARGE! Why, then, with no explanation was this fee thrust at us when there were people working on getting ads for the book so it once again be given out. However, these directories have been on sale for quite a length of time with no explanation forthcoming for the change in policy. We are taking this opportunity to ask publicly, WHY?

About 200 years ago our forefathers up in Boston got so vexed by a tax put on a beverage by the British they took drastic measures to combat this "taxation without representation." We are not rabble-rousers, but there is a growing parallel. Please, you who have the final say on these affairs — Draw the line somewhere. GIVE US A BREAK!

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE REFERENDUM TO RAISE THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEE?

CAROL HENKIN, Freshman -
El. Ed. —

Raising the student activity fee would enable us as students to enjoy a more diversified program of extra-curricular activities, for we would have the proper funds.

RONNIE SCHULMAN, Freshman - Bus. Ad. —

I don't see how they are able to carry on activities at such a low price. I am in favor of it being raised.

MURRAY PRUESS, Sophomore - Bus. Adm. —

If the student activities fee were raised, it would give the smaller organizations funds which they definitely need to work with. I am definitely in favor of the raise and hope that the majority of the student body is in favor of it.

FRAN ZIRKEL, Junior - Secretarial —

I feel that if the fee is raised we will be able to put out a better newspaper and yearbook. As it now stands they can not print the type of publication they want to.

So You Never Saw A Campus Thunder!

For the benefit of those of you who have never seen a "Campus Thunder" show, presented annually by the University at the Klein Memorial Auditorium through the auspices of the Office of Campus Productions, the SCRIBE would like to give you some background information:

Combining the better qualities of sight, sound, color, song and college humor, UB's annual urban-college presentation has been hailed as one of the top collegiate musical productions in the East; a close runner-up to the J. of Pennsylvania's famous road show "Mask & Wig".

Albert A. Dickason, the guiding hand behind each "Thunder" and the Director of the Office of Campus Productions which produces, advertises and presents the show, is a playwright in his own. He has written several plays which have been presented in summer stock and he hopes to see at least one on Broadway this season.

He has acquired a reputation among critics as a genius for recognizing, training and developing budding young talent and whipping them into polished performers of near-professional style.

"Campus Thunder" shows, since their inception in 1947, have received rave notices from such critics as Robert Coleman of the New York Daily Mirror and Kate Cameron of the New York Daily News, as well as the local critics of the Bridgeport Post-Telegram and Sunday Herald.

The New York Times, which presents the last word in legitimate-stage critical reviews, has seen fit to honor it each year with favorable notices. J. J. Shubert, of the original Shubert-of-Broadway family, was an honored guest at one of the shows in the past and he said, "it was a tremendous hit". Such praise from Caesar is praise indeed. Surely, no ordinary college musical is worthy of such acclaim.

In the beginning, A. D. 1947, the administration considered permission for the production on the basis that it would give UB students an actual dramatic lab in which they could perform and learn poise, self-confidence and teamwork.

Since then, fortunately for the good and welfare of UB, the general public has welcomed it with open arms and each production presented at the Klein Memorial Auditorium in recent years has been an "SRO" affair.

This year, "Thunder" will go on the road for the first time in its short life, travelling to the Bushnell Auditorium in Hartford. The one-night stand for audiences who have travelled to Bridgeport in the past is a result of its growing popularity throughout Connecticut.

In the future, it would not be too presumptuous to vision television and national magazine coverage. The one thing that enters our minds is that all of this we call "Thunder" IS the University of Bridgeport and is the one strong link between the community and the campus, through the lasting bond of entertainment.

The main feature of every "Thunder" show is our own gay galaxy of gorgeous gals known affectionately as the "Thunderettes", a nickname coined by a pleased critic from Gotham a few years ago.

The "Thunderettes" are a gay group devoted to the principle that a man in feminine attire can be twice as funny as anyone. If that last statement sounds strange, don't let it bother you. Things will all be as clear as a bell when the "girls" strut out on the big runway of the Klein Memorial Auditorium on Nov. 19, 1954, to highlight "Campus Thunder '55" and bring down the house into happy hysterics.

Everything shakin' including the leaves on the trees.

Thunder Veterans Return To Bolster 1955 Edition

Notre Dame, Army and Oklahoma all have their returning lettermen to bolster their 1954 elvens — so will "Campus Thunder '55". Headlining the hard core of returning veterans will be Frank Jawoisz as "Fifi", the lovable, laughable leader of the "Thunderettes".

Also returning to bolster this year's seventh edition of the annual campus show will be Pauline Scinto (of Bridgeport), Yolanda Delmore, UB's Cyd Charisse, Ginny Tennant, Gail Henderson, Bill Bartlett, Geraldine Bennett, Marianne Lacy and Dolores Ludka (last year's feminine lead).

Among the many fine newcomers to be seen on Nov. 19 will be: Gary Singer (Boy Everything); Alex Zavadsky, the male lead; Joseph Baceyvous, "Iggy" Salone (a lovely lass in an evening gown); and nine specialty dancers for four big production numbers.

Song and lyric veterans, Sime Neary, Sam Anderson and Danny Leeson (by proxy from the U. of Arizona) will pen the twelve original compositions for this year's "Thunder". ("Thunder" is one of the few college musicals that uses original music especially composed for its annual show).

The boss - there'll be some changes made.

Pity Those Poor "Males" Oh, To Be A Thunderette

"AIN'T SHE SWEET?
SHE HER WALKING DOWN
THE STREET
NOW I ASK YOU VERY CONFIDENTIALLY,
AIN'T SHE SWEET?"

That song borrowed from the good old days, was quite the bit when Pa was courting Ma. Now if you ever serenaded some of the boys with that tune they'd punch you in the eye — BUT we know a group of "the boys" who will appreciate any such acclaim on Nov. 19.

Our own group of temporary Christine's from the University's darkest street corners known as the "Thunderettes" will gladly take bows as glamorous gals on that Friday evening at the Klein Memorial Auditorium before an expected "SRO" crowd of students and residents of Bridgeport.

Headlining an all-male or all-female or all-mixed-up chorus line will be Frank Jawoisz as the fabulous "Fifi", the sweetheart of Howland Hall and the number one candidate for "Miss Everything, 1955".

Also starring in that high-kicking line will be the glamorous "Iggy" Salone, a local girl-made-good from Hartford. (Hartford is in for quite a jolt). The rest of the "girls" have been carefully screened and chosen for face, figure, poise, voice and seductive interpretation of the dance.

After this year's edition of "Thunder" plays in Bridgeport and in Hartford, local politicians will have plenty of platform timber to base their next campaigns on. When these gals strut on the runway-indignant shouts of "burlesque" will result in every campaign headquarters. The "Thunderettes" will make you long for the old Lyric Theatre.

by Larry Babich

When John McKeon's soccer team walloped Long Island University 8-0 last Saturday at Seaside Park, it not only marked the fifth straight victory and sixth of the season for the Knights, but also established them as one of the powerhouses in New England soccer ranks.

With three games left on their schedule, Panzer, Hofstra and Fordham, still to be played, the Knights might, and the chances are good, that they will finish the season with a 9-1 record. This column had predicted an 8-2 slate early in the year, but will be glad to take a ribbing if the club ends up any better.

This has been a fine season for McKeon and the ballplayers with hustle and spirit marking the key to success. One of the interesting figures on the books this season is that the same club, with two exceptions finished the 1953 campaign with a 4-4 slate.

Jimmy Davins has moved into the goaltending spot, vacated by the graduation of Wally Slavkin, and has already had three shutouts and the envious distinction for a goalie of having scored a goal. This latter feat came against LIU, when he moved up to the front line, with the team leading 6-0. "Thank goodness they put me up there", said Davins, "I was getting real cold back in the nets all by myself".

One reason for Davins being all alone in the nets is the tremendous defensive job being done by Bob Stevenson and Jack White and the halfback play of Danny Katz, Herb Rudolph and Mark Schienbart. The defensive alignment has also accounted for three goals, with Davins, Katz and Stevenson notching one each. Stevenson's coming in the Hillyer clash and travelling about 70 yards before nestling in the twines.

The high scoring front line that has scored 27 goals for the season has been improving with each game and boasts of such scorers, as Mike Belmont with 13, and Gordie Cochrane with 9. Nick D'Aluisio, Tommy DeNoto and Ralph Carbone have garnered many assists and have set up many others that they don't get credit for.

Belmont and Cochrane, who both received All-New England laurels last year, have bettered their 1953 mark and observers feel that both boys should be up for All-American mention this season.

SPA Defeats Trumbull 41-13 To Regain Touchfootball Lead

Sigma Phi Alpha moved back into first place in the intramural football league with Dick Giancesello passing for four touchdowns and running for another as SPA downed Trumbull Hall 41-13. But Madden ran back an intercepted pass for the victors' final touchdown.

Giancesello passed to Ernie Amara, who lateralled back to the "chucker" on the third play from scrimmage to put SPA in front to stay. Only moments later the winners had their second score as Madden stole a Trumbull aerial and ran half the length of the field for the victors' second score.

Trumbull answered back as Jerry Kennedy ran 60 yards on an end run to momentarily put his club back in the ball game, but Giancesello took to the air, passing to Jimmy Davins and then Madden for two markers to put SPA out in front 28-7 at halftime.

The victors kicked off for the second half and after they held for downs, marched to the Trumbull three before running out of steam. Midway through the third stanza Giancesello passed to Madden for what looked like SPA's fifth touchdown, but the play was called back for an offside. Two plays later the same combination clicked with Madden scoring his twelfth TD of the year, and SPA led 35-7.

Down four touchdowns, Trumbull made one final effort to come back as Fred Cirilin passed to Kennedy but Giancesello passed for his 17th touchdown of the year to the end the scoring for the day.

SPA, now, has only to get by the two cellar clubs, Marina Hall and Waldemere Hall, to clinch the championship.

Knight Eleven Meets Wilkes This Saturday

Wilkes College will invade Candlelite Stadium, Saturday night, to provide the opposition for the University's football team, as the Knights go after their first win of the season in their collegiate finale.

The Purple and White broke a two week scoring famine last week but lost their seventh straight game of the year, being dropped 30-6 by New Britain Teachers.

Saturday's clash will be the sixth game in a series that dates back to 1949 with the Colonels holding a 3-2 advantage. Bridgeport won last year's fray 25-14, twice coming from behind, to defeat the Pennsylvanians on their home grounds.

Wilkes Favored

Wilkes, working out of a single wing offense, comes into the game as a heavy favorite off their 3-2 record on the year, that includes victories over Ithaca, Lebanon Valley and Trenton Teachers.

The pass catching of Dick Cipriani and the running of Joe Marrucco featured the Purple and White offense last week as Cipriani grabbed seven aeriols to increase his total to 20 for the season and Marrucco driving up the middle for 29 yards. John Esposito also contributed to the Knights' offensive thrust by gaining 24 yards.

Don Ardito, who completed 10 out of the 20 passes he threw last week, hit for his first touchdown this year, passing to Cipriani for the score, after spotting Eddie Hall with a 36 yard pass to set up the score.

Hall May Start

Hall, who has been making circus catches of late and stands third in pass receiving and fourth in rushing on the club, may move into a starting halfback berth for Saturday's clash, with Dick Fresolone nursing a pulled muscle in his side and Roland Emery out with a badly bruised elbow.

Bridgeport will close out its season against Quonset Point Naval Air Station a week from Saturday, also at Candlelite Stadium.

Mermen Open Practice At Bridgeport YMCA

The University swimming team has started practice in anticipation of their first meet against Manhattan College on Dec. 8.

With coach Walt Kondratovich still handling the reins of football, the team is being led in their practice sessions by last year's captain Dick Ellis and Stu Ornstein, who is doubling as manager and distance star.

The mermen are working out at the Bridgeport YMCA, getting into shape for a rugged seven game schedule that includes meets against such powers as Long Island University, Holy Cross and Massachusetts.

Booters Win Fifth Straight In 8-0 Rout Of Long Island

by Dick Johnson

BULLETIN

The University's soccer team won its sixth consecutive game, and seventh of the season by defeating Panzer College 2-1 Wednesday afternoon on the losers home field in S. Orange, N. J.

Mike Belmont scored both of the Knight's goals to bring his season's total to 15, breaking his own mark of 13, set last year. Gordie Cochrane received an assist on the game winning goal which came midway through the final period.

The "Eleven Iron Men", as the University soccer team is fast becoming known, made it five in a row last Saturday, trampling Long Island University, 8-0. The game was Jim "Mouse" Davins' second straight shutout and third of the year and was the squad's sixth victory in seven contests this season.

The eight goals also marked the highest total ever scored by a Purple Knight club and definitely established them as one of the powerhouses in New England, if not on the entire eastern seaboard.

The Knights were scheduled to take on Panzer at So. Orange, N. J., Wednesday.

Defense Big Difference

Defense was the big story as Bob Stevenson and Jack White kept the Blackbirds away from scoring territory all day, so much so, that coach John McKeon pulled Davins out of the nets and put him on the front line where he scored his first goal.

Gordie Cochrane and Mike Belmont, both of whom are almost sure bets to repeat their All-New England selections of a year ago, garnered five goals between them, Cochrane netting his seventh, eighth and ninth of the year, and Belmont raising his total to 13.

MIKE BELMONT - Sterling center-forward of the University's soccer team Wednesday set a new school record of 15 goals in one season by notching both tallies in the Knights 2-1 victory over Panzer.

Fencers Meet Monday

Professor William DeSiero announced that the first meeting of the 1954 fencing team this year will take place in Alumni Hall, Monday. Interested males will meet at 3 P. M. and female duellists at 4 P. M.

Those returning from last year are Bill Jarboe, Jim Martin, Al Bedford, Andy Mirmina and Bruce Malkin. Prof. DeSiero issued an invitation to anyone interested in learning the art of fencing to try out for the squad.

NON-COMPOS MENDES

by Bob Mendes

Let's face it. . . two dollars isn't that much. If you go down to the club. . . (But then. . . who does?) it'll buy 13 and two-thirds beers. If we break this down statistically, it's still 13 and two-thirds beers, but statistically it doesn't hurt so much. All we have to do to increase the activities on campus is to stay away from the club a couple of Friday nights and we could pay this extra two bucks and never feel it. Besides, at registration, we pay so bloody much money for this and that, another two dollars wouldn't even be noticed. This increase will do the following things: Provide 66 football scholarships, 20 basketball scholarships, 12 swimming scholarships, 36 baseball, 20 track and field and 11 golf scholarships.

This, of course, isn't much when you figure that it's costing us two dollars a semester. In fact that's four dollars a year. . . Man, this really snowballs!!!!

Other benefits that would develop from this four dollars per annum sacrifice are a brand new gym and field house, a full-time professional trainer for our athletic teams and cars for all on-campus students. Better think twice, though, these are liable to be second hand cars. They try to beat you every time when it comes to money. And incidentally. . . That's just one gym for the whole school, not one for each dormitory. We're sorry if we got you all shook and off on the wrong track.

We're sorry if we give the impression that the athletes are to be the only ones benefiting from this raise. . . aside from the dirty old second-hand cars that don't count anyway, a new suit of clothing may be in the offing for each undergraduate.

The yearbook is coming out in neon lights this year if the increase comes through and marks will be: A through C. No fuss, no bother with D's and F's that only clutter up your transcript.

The SCRIBE is contemplating launching a campaign to promote some WORTH-WHILE movements on campus aside from those other bits, because it's a shame to waste money on these minor changes.

News Flash — If everything goes well a treat is in store for UB students. For the Christmas Ball music will be brought to them by the band of the one, the only, the incomparable. . . JOHN-NY GALE!

Seriously. . . The Student Council just must have this raise, and we are making a formal plea to all readers of this column to vote next Monday through Thursday. . . and vote YES to the proposed $2 increase in the Student Activity Fund. This move is the first step in helping to alleviate the heavy burden of supporting campus organizations. IT MUST GO THROUGH!

Smile of the day:

When you break up with your girl the sensation may be likened to that of a stubbed toe. At first you just wait for the pain, and when it comes, it's a blinding, maddening pain blocking out all other sensations. . . Then after a period of time it settles down to a dull steady throb. Once, however, you realize that you have other toes besides that one. . . The pain dies.

Noticed in passing:

A person buttons his buttons with one hand and unbuttons them with the other one.

A general theme of conversation for the past few weeks has been: "Why go to the football games. . . we all know that the team is going to lose anyway". We may ask of these people, "Why bother going to school for an education at all. We all know that eventually we're all going to die some day, anyway."

Booters Win Again

each scored their first goal of the year to add to the Knights' total.

McKeon, jubilant over his club's victory, termed it "the best win of the season, even better than last week's 3-0 win over Adelphi. That defense is nothing short of terrific", commented the mentor, "and don't forget those halfbacks, they're doing a whale of a job out there."

Hofstra College will move into Seaside Park Saturday afternoon to provide the opposition for the Knights' final home game of the season.
